2019 New England Patriots COTW program

Congratulations to your High School on being chosen as this week's New England Patriots High School Coach of the Week winner. Along with the COW award, the New England Patriots Charitable Foundation will provide your high school with financial assistance through a $1,000 grant to maintain and upgrade your football program with the purchase of new helmets, football equipment, also including football video equipment etc.

This season marks the 24th year in which the Patriots have joined the National Football League in conducting the High School Coach of the Week program, which recognizes outstanding high school coaches who support and promote player health and safety at the youth and high school football levels throughout New England. Andre Tippet oversees the program as part of the New England Patriots Charitable Foundation's commitment to high school and youth football initiatives.

The New England Patriots Charitable Foundation is the non-profit through which the Patriots support charitable and philanthropic organizations throughout New England. This support comes in the form of direct grants, in-kind donations and player appearances. The foundation assists a variety of charitable organizations and programs throughout New England by supporting their educational, family and health initiatives.

Grant's use:

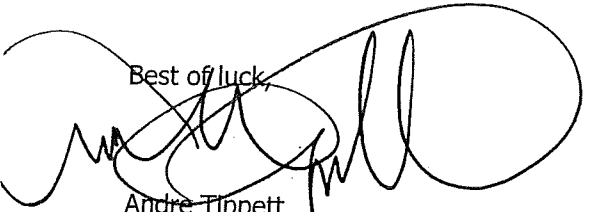

- Appropriate uses include the purchase of new helmets and equipment, helmet and equipment reconditioning, football field refurbishments, stipends for a certified athletic trainer to assist in the prevention and treatment of injuries during play or practice, football video equipment and all things football related etc.

Major criteria:

- Holding any health and safety certification, preach the importance of teaching proper fundamentals, actively promote and integrate concussion awareness and management protocols with their players and parents, proper heat and hydration practices, etc

At the conclusion of the season, one high school coach will be named the New England Patriots High School Coach of the Year and will receive an additional $2,000 contribution toward the school's football program.

Best of luck,

Andre Tippet
