Student Spotlight

Ndoumbe Ndoeye - Class of 2021

In 2018, Ndoumbe Ndoeye and several other students created the Diversity Awareness Club to address the negative experiences they had as students of color in Franklin.

Since then, the club has become a prominent one at FHS, and welcomes all students to become educated on racial issues in the community. The Diversity Awareness Club works to make everybody at the high school feel safe and included.

To read more about Ndoumbe and the Diversity Awareness Club view the Pantherbook interview with Ndoumbe >HERE

FHS Fun Fact- There are 50 sets of twins and 2 sets of triplets currently attending FHS!

STUDENT ID'S & BUS PASSES

All students are required to bring their ID's to school every day. If you do not have an ID or bus pass, stop by the Main Office.
